WASHINGTON ITEMS.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

A special dispatch to the New York Commercial Advertiser says twenty-three Senators declare that they will vote against the constitutional amendment.

GENERAL LEE.

General Robert E. Lee, now here at the Metropolitan Hotel, studiously avoids the gaze of the curious, who, in large numbers, ever since the entry of his name on the hotel register, have availed themselves of every opportunity to see him. He is accompanied by a gentleman named Moore. On visiting the Capitol on Saturday, in obedience to the summons of the Reconstruction Committee of Congress, he walked down the avenue, and was followed and observed by many people. By the time he returned to his quarters, quite an assemblage had gathered there to see him.

FRAUDULENT USE OF THE MAILS.

An important bill, designed to prevent the perversion of the mails to fraudulent and illegal purposes, was introduced in the Senate last week. It authorizes the Postmaster-General to prevent the delivery of letters or packages sent through the mail to fictitious addresses whenever he shall be satisfied that such fictitious address is adopted by any persons with the intention to deceive and defraud. The bill also provides that if any persons shall attempt, by means of circulars or handbills transmitted through the mails, to induce persons to invest money in any lottery, gift enterprise, or other scheme of chance, which is carried on with the intention to deceive and defraud their correspondents, and if any person shall, by the same means, have deceived or defrauded their correspondents, he or they shall, on conviction, pay a fine and be imprisoned.

GENERAL GRANT.

Lieutenant General Grant has accepted an invitation to become the guest of the members of the New York National Union League Club, on the 22d instant—Washington's birthday—on which occasion he will be presented with a magnificent full-length portrait of Gen. Scott, painted by Page, on behalf of a number of gentlemen of that city, who have purchased the portrait for that purpose. Mrs. Grant will accompany the General.

MR. SEWARD AGAINST THE RADICALS.

The Secretary of State honored the House with his presence yesterday. He is a warm supporter of the President's restoration policy, and does not hesitate to so express himself.

From the Washington Union of Saturday Evening.

Arrival of Gen. Robert E. Lee in the City—he avoids the Least Demonstration from his friends.

The late Confederate Commander is in the city, and was the object of much curiosity among the passengers who came down on the train with him last night. The mail agent on the Orange and Alexandria railroad informed us he procured a close carriage on leaving the cars, and most probably had been driven to Georgetown, where his daughter (Miss Mildred Lee) has for some time past been a modest and retiring visitor. He did not go to the place supposed, but was quietly conveyed to the Metropolitan Hotel, which he entered in the most private manner, not even registering his name we believe. Very few of the numerous guests of this superb establishment knew of his presence until he came down from the breakfast table into the hall about half-past nine this morning. A number of old acquaintances then gathered around him, and succeeded in detaining him a few minments in their midst. He was evidently averse to any demonstration of friendship or partiality from any one, and seemed anxious to retire from the crowd which had suddenly surrounded him. This he did the instant politeness permitted, and, escorted by two of his friends, passed out of the hotel down Pennsylvania avenue. His appearance is as bright and martial as ever, and no cloud of disappointed ambition can be seen casting its shadows over his shining countenance. His hair and beard, which are of an iron grey, are worn short, the latter being neatly and elegantly cropped. His cloak is a black, semi-military one, and looks as if it had accompanied him in some of his last eventful campaigns. The remainder of his dress is purely of a civic character, well-fitting, tasteful, and as highly becoming to his condition of peace as the brilliant grey uniform of the South became his handsome figure on the field of battle. He will probably leave his present quarters to-day.

THE DEMOCRACY OF RHODE ISLAND.—The Democratic State Central Committee of Rhode Island, met at Providence on Thursday last, and unanimously passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, of the State of Tennessee, President of the United States, in his efforts to restore the Union, preserve the authority of the Constitution of the United States, and secure the several States their just representation in Congress, and rightful position, as States of and in the Union, is entitled to the moral and political support of all Union loving and patriotic citizens; and that we will sustain and co-operate with him in all such endeavors; upholding him so far forth, and as long as he upholds the Constitution and the principles of American Liberty.

THE LABOR QUESTION.—The Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, Col. S. L. Freemont, in his annual report, says:

"The labor question is one that seems likely to give the future management of the railways in the South the most trouble and anxiety. I am unable to see a satisfactory solution of the difficulty. How many negroes in one hundred will prove reliable and steady laborers it is hardly possible to determine; but if we could believe there would be one, it would be a hopeful condition of things compared to the present uncertainty. I am confident it cannot reach two in the hundred that now inhabit this section of country.

The remedy is white labor, if it can be had; as a consequence I have authorized the employment of all the industrious and sober white laborers on the track."

One-half of the negro population of South Carolina have disappeared—mostly dead.

Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR BONE MANURE.
WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs. B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. P. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime for four years—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,
"No. 191 Water street, New York."

PROSPECTUS
COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	35 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

North Carolina Land Loan Company.

We are gratified to learn that our suggestions at different times in regard to the formation of a North Carolina Land Loan Company, with the view of establishing a National Bank or Banks in this State, meets with very general favor. Almost every other scheme which has been suggested has met with strong opposition, so much so, that much doubt is entertained whether any of the propositions before the Legislature, with the view of securing capital in the State, will meet with legislative favor. Should they succeed, as we believe the merits of several of them warrant, still the necessity for a large amount of capital in the State, in order to the recuperation of our people is so great, that there is ample room for the proposition which we have made. Our time is so occupied, we have had no opportunity of conferring with gentlemen upon the subject, with the view of inaugurating bills and propositions to be brought before the Legislature. We believe it is important that this should be done at once. The plan contains the following propositions:

1. The incorporation of the North Carolina Land Loan Company, limited in its stock to $20,000,000. The stock to be $500 per share or $100 as may be thought best. Books to be opened in every County in the State for three or six months.

2. Subscribers to be bona fide owners in fee simple of lands or real estate, entirely unencumbered, to be valued either at the tax assessment or by such other plans as may be adopted. Subscribers to mortgage to the Company the whole or any part of their improved or unimproved lands or other real estate, to the full amount of the number of shares taken and to receive certificates of stock for the same.

3. Subscribers to retain possession of their lands or real estate, to improve them and receive any profit arising therefrom, but the lands to be held by the Company against the claims of all others, during the existence of the Company, as indemnity against all losses which may occur. Subscribers can neither sell, nor in any wise damage said property, except that they may sell their stock.

4. The necessary amount of real estate being secured, Agents to be dispatched North, to borrow on the faith of the Company one third or one fourth of the amount in gold on long time at 7 per cent. The gold, or its equivalent, to be invested in U. S. 6 per cent. stocks, to be deposited with the U. S. Treasury for the establishment of National Banks. The Banks to be located at convenient points for the accommodation of the people. To do an exchange business, &c., and to loan under proper rules, to the extent warranted by the law and by the safety of the institution. Such would be emphatically the People's Banks.

Trinity College.

We observed on Tuesday, in reading the proof-sheet of the proceedings of the Senate, that the name of Trinity College had been omitted in the report of the committee, on the distribution of the book of the late Mr. Edward Ruffin among the Colleges of the State. We were satisfied it was an unintentional omission, and therefore did not allude to it in our columns on yesterday. We addressed a note to the chairman of the committee calling his attention to the omission. He has assured us that the omission was purely accidental and that it will be readily supplied We deem it proper to say this much, as the matter was alluded to by a city cotemporary, and to relieve any misconception or erroneous impression which might arise, among the numerous friends of that excellent institution.

The book alluded to, is a sketch-book prepared by Mr. Ruffin some years ago, while visiting the Swamp lands in the eastern part of the State, and was printed, we believe, at the institution of the Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind in this city. It doubtless contains interesting and important suggestions.

The National Intelligencer, which steadily maintains its conservatism, is regarded as the official organ of the President. Its recent appeals to the people of the North, are well calculated to open their eyes to the dangers which threaten the government, from the violent policy of ultra men who have forced a breach with the President. It calls upon them no longer to trust the politicians, but to meet en masse and adopt such platforms for their future course, as will amply sustain the President in maintaining the constitution.

Negro Testimony.

The Freedmen's Code was discussed in the House on yesterday, on its second reading, chiefly arising upon the question of admitting negro testimony. We learn that the debate was exciting and somewhat warm. The bill, however, passed its second reading after some amendment.

OLD FILES.—If any person has the files of the Spirit of the Age of the years 1856, '57, '58 or '9, a friend of ours would pay the value of certain papers issued during those years, containing communications signed "R. L. A." or "Philo."

Important Military Order—Disloyal Newspapers to be Suppressed.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES OF U. STATES,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 17, 1866.

Circular Letter Addressed to Department Commanders.

You will please send to these headquarters as soon as practicable, and from time to time thereafter, such copies of newspapers published in your department, as contain sentiments of disloyalty and hostility to the Government in any of its branches, and state whether such paper is habitual in its utterances of such sentiments. The persistent publication of articles calculated to keep up hostility of feeling between the people of different sections of the country cannot be tolerated. This information is called for with a view to their suppression, which will be done from these headquarters only.

By command of Lieutenant-General Grant,
T. S. BOWERS, A. A. G.

We expressed the other day, when the Richmond Examiner was surpressed, our disbelief in the rumors in the Northern press, that Gen. Grant had issued the order. Subsequent facts have satisfied us that in this we were mistaken, and the above order shows that the General does see evidences of disloyalty in the Southern press.—Much as we estimate the liberty of the press in this country, we have not a word to say in defence of those presses, who claim licentiousness for liberty, and the right to jeopard the peace of the country for the gratification of personal or sectional spleen. Yet it is plain, looking to the true spirit of liberty as embodied in the Constitution of the United States, the suppression of the press should be wisely and carefully exercised, and we are glad that Gen. Grant has resolved to bring the matter under his own supervision. The Southern people have confidence in Gen. Grant, and they do not believe that he will act hastily or injudiciously in this matter.

In the case of the Examiner, conditions and pledges were required of Mr. Pollard, which were proper and right. We cannot concieve how any editor can suppose that he should be at liberty to say what he pleases—even what he may think his patrons desire him to say—when the country is under military surveillance and when the Northern mind is so sensitive and distrustful of Southern loyalty and patriotism.—Indeed, we cannot see what gratification it can afford any one, to labor to excite suspicion and widen the breach which already exists between the people North and South. Whatever differences exist between them, it is a dire necessity,—a necessity of which we were as well convinced before the war as now—that the two are inseparable, unless God in his Providence should directly interfere to sunder them. Hence we were for the Union before the war, and we are for the Union now and forever, until God shall order it otherwise. But we will not blink it; we are for the Union and the Constitution as it is. This we understand to be the prevailing sentiment of the Southern people and presses. If there are any who intend to oppose this Union under the Constitution, and design either to labor to break up this government or to change its character from what it is, we regard such disloyal, whether they live North or South. It is due to the whole country, that the government should exercise its surveillance both North and South, to prevent on the one hand any plan, scheme or purpose to break up the government and divide the Union, or on the other, any attempt to change or modify the essential features of the government, as it was handed to us by our fathers.

This has been our aim and only aim, since the surrender, to preserve and perpetuate the government of our fathers, and hence we have given our unqualified support to the policy of Andrew Johnson. If this be disloyalty—if it be disloyal to labor and pray for the perpetuation of the government of our fathers, then we are disloyal, but not otherwise.

President Johnson.

The position of the President at the present time, is one of the most delicate and responsible character, and requires the highest wisdom and moral courage. He has so far exhibited these in a remarkable degree. His position in his late message returning the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, will be fully sustained by the common sense judgment of the people. The provisions of that bill are so manifestly repugnant to the spirit of the Constitution, that it is difficult to account for the pertinacity with which its friends cling to it. The late amendment of that instrument, which empowers the Congress to adopt any necessary legislation for the maintenance of the freedom of the black race, affords no shadow of justification for the countenance of so vast and so objectionable a piece of machinery as was proposed by the bill.

The President's course has created quite a tempest among the ultra men of the North.—Violent and disrespectful language towards the President, and the most ultra measures will follow it up, but the tempest will spread itself, and the quicker by its greater violence, ending in the confirmation and support of the President by the great masses of the people.

TRIAL OF MAJ. GEN.—The court for the trial of Maj. Gen, met on yesterday. The court being organized, Messrs. Hollard of Florida, and Col. Wilder of Mass. appeared as counsel for the defence. The charges and specifications were read. Charge 1st. Violation of the laws and customs of war. Charge 2nd. Murder in violation of the laws of war. The alledged crimes charged upon John H. Gee while keeper of the rebel military prison at Salisbury N. C.

The defence plead the want of jurisdiction on the part of the commission, that the defendant was exempt from penalities and trial for acts done in his military capacity, by virtue of his parole.

The committee decided to adjourn till to-day, when the point in dispute will be argued.

NEUSE BRIDGE.—The Eastern mail reached here on yesterday at 12 o'clock and went down last night. Passengers and the mails will cross in flats until the bridge is rebuilt. Efforts will be made to reconstruct the bridge as soon as possible.

Strange Admission.

Our neighbor on Tuesday, in copying an article from the Richmond Republic, commendatory of the course of the Military officers in Virginia, makes the following strange admission:

The following from the Richmond Republic, applies as well to North-Carolina as Virginia.—We commend this article and the reflections it suggests to those persons, who are disposed to slight federal military officers and their families, for no other reason than that they represent the government.—Standard.

We regret the remark, because it seems to us to convey a meaning which our neighbor did not intend, and which is so contrary to our information, that it surprises us.

Does our neighbor seriously believe that any Federal officer or family, has been slighted, "for no other reason than that they represent the government?" Can it be possible that there is a person in North Carolina, who even feels unkind towards any officer or person, because they represent the government? We cannot believe it. We would have no hesitancy in pronouncing any such person disloyal. If any paper or person in the State is influenced by this feeling in what they say or do, they are disloyal. But we have not a particle of evidence to believe that there is any such person or paper in the State.

It is possible that some young, thoughtless persons, may have said or done things which might be construed into a slight—nay they may have gone further than this, exhibiting a feeling of aversion, engendered purely by the distressing and damaging occurrences of the war, or produced by what they conceive to be the unkind treatment they may have received from individuals connected with the army, or those in civil life who array themselves against what our people believe to be their future peace and happiness, and under such impressions, they may have forgotten what was due to their own self-respect, always to treat strangers courteously; but that any one from a feeling of hostility to the government, has acted improperly, we have no reason to believe.

Moreover, there is an apology due to the people of this city. Raleigh is, perhaps, proverbial throughout the State, for its want of attention to strangers. Officers of the army and others, very naturally, expect to find in Raleigh, the same attentions and courtesies, that they find elsewhere. But the citizens of our own State fail to receive them here in a great measure.—Why? Simply because our people, for the most part, are necessarily confined to employments which must be attended to, and few, if any, have sufficient time to devote to the large number of strangers who visit the city. Hence each family selects its own circle of association, and finds that proper attention to them, consumes about all the time they can devote to others. It is, in this way, and from no disposition to neglect or slight strangers, that the idea has grown up that there is a lack of hospitality and courtesy among our people.

For the Sentinel.

Penitentiary.

As the important measures pending before the Legislature are being discussed in the papers, I propose to call up the penitentiary bill, introduced in the Senate in the earlier part of the session, as being among those important measures. That bill proposes to enclose a plat of land, including a stone quary, with a picket fence after the plan of military enclosures, with cheap prison buildings to hold convicts at night, and build a substantial penitentiary within the enclosure entirely with convict labor.

A few slight amendments might, perhaps, be added with advantage. But the main features of the bill, as well as its entire practicability and absolute necessity, deserve the thoughtful attention of legislators. Could not an institution of the kind be inaugurated, and put in successful operation, at a less cost to the State than the jailors' fees for prisoners kept in jail? I speak of it in a financial point of view. For all know the State is not in a financial condition to embark in any business that would require a large outlay of money. But if something of the kind can be established, even at a trifling cost above what actual jailors' fees would be, would it not be a wise and judicious expenditure? Can the human mind conjecture the amount of imprisonment that must necessarily follow the opening of our courts? Then think of the incapacity of our jails to hold them, to say nothing of their uselessness in some sections; for prisoners seem to get out of them whenever they choose to do so. Again, reflect for a moment, how few are able to pay their own jail fees. The peaceable taxpayers of the State to be taxed to keep the vicious in prison and idle! How much better for both, that they should be put to healthy labor, where they could earn, at least, a part of their expenses. Then how much better the punishments can be graded and meted out to offenders, with a penitentiary than without one.

Our present law whips a man for stealing a pocket knife, and does the same thing for stealing a horse. A sentence to the penitentiary, I imagine, would make, at least, a difference of ten years' service at hard work for two offences. That is only one instance, and you may go thro' the whole catalogue of crimes and punishments, and you find the same inequality and impossibility of grading punishments according to the offence, under the whipping and branding process, as our law now is. Establish a penitentiary for the whole State, to punish the higher offences, and work-houses in the different counties, for the punishment of smaller offences; then crimes can be punished with humanity and according to the offence committed, and character of the offender, and often with profit, both to the public as well as the offender.

Nearly all the States in the Union have adopted penitentiaries, and the remainder will, no doubt, soon do so. If this Legislature fails to adopt one, may we not hope that the people will take it in hand and demand one at the hands of the next Legislature. It is a question that the more men think about it, the more necessity they see for having some safe place to keep the vicious disturbers of society, where they can do no harm, and, at the same time, be earning something for the State. I hope the present Legislature will give the subject that considerate deliberation its importance to the whole State so much demands. L.

STILL AT WORK.—The rogues are still at work. Last week Mr. Jos. A. Cannon, living four miles from town, lost a large quantity of meat—his smoke house was undermined by the rogues. In town, the dwellings of Jos. H. Wilson, Esq., and Mrs. Alexander were entered and robbed.

If Gen. Ruger will give our civil authorities the power to promptly and publicly whip rogues (black and white) when caught, we know it would have a salutary effect.—Charlotte Democrat.

Mr. Jones of Wake, introduced a bill to be entitled an act to prevent prosecutions in certain cases; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A message from the House transmitting a proposition to go forthwith into the election of Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit, concurred in, and the Senate voted as follows, W. P. Caldwell and J. A. Dargan in nomination:

Those who voted for Mr. Caldwell were,

Messrs. Arendell, Black, Blount, Bogle, Bullock, Bynum, Carter, Cowles, Garner, Gash, Gorrell, Harris of Rutherford, Isbell, Jones of Wake, Keener, Morehead, Tayloe, Wilson.—18.

The bill authorizing the appointment of an Inspector of Naval stores in the town of Fayetteville came up, and passed its third reading.

The bill fixing a scale for estimating the value of Confederate money, came up on its second reading, which sprung a discussion of some length, in which several gentlemen participated. On motion of Mr. Bynum, the bill was laid on the table with a view of offering a substitute for the whole bill.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Henry Hardie of the Presbyterian church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Chandler introduced a bill to amend the charter of the Asheville and Greenville Turnpike Company. (Changes the title to the Buncombe Turnpike Company.) Referred.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, a message was sent to the Senate proposing that the two Houses proceed forthwith to elect a Solicitor for the 6th Judicial Circuit. The Senate concurred, and the House voted as follows. For Mr. Caldwell, 48; for Mr. Dargan, 43; for Mr. Furches, 3; for Mr. Dowd, 1.

The Committee that superintended the election subsequently reported the election of Mr. Caldwell—he having received 66 votes, Mr. Dargan 57; scattering 2.

A resolution in regard to the papers belonging to the office of the Clerk of the House of Commons, passed second and third readings under a suspension of the rules. (Authorizes the Clerk to arrange said papers, and appropriates fifty dollars for that purpose.)

"A bill to regulate pleadings in courts of law," was laid on the table on second reading.

"A bill to authorize the exchange of the stocks held by the State of North Carolina in certain railroads and canals, for bonds of the State or the interest thereon now due, and for other purposes," was put on its second reading. Pending its consideration the House voted as above for solicitor. Mr. McAden, (by leave,) introduced a bill to authorize the chairman of the County Court of Alamance County to sell real estate. Adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House, at 11 o'clock A. M. proceeded to consider the special order: viz: "a bill concerning Negroes, Indians and persons of color or of mixed blood."

Sundry amendments proposed by the Judiciary committee (stated in a former report,) were adopted.

Mr. Smith of Hertford, moved to amend by inserting after the words "persons of color," in line 1st, section 9, the words "not otherwise incompetent." Adopted.

Mr. Hyman moved to amend by adding at the end of section 9 (formerly the eleventh,) as follows:

Provided, That this section shall not go into effect until civil authority is fully and completely restored in this State.

Messrs. Hyman and Moore, of Martin, supported the amendment.

Messrs. McAden and Caldwell, of Guilford, opposed it, as tending to emasculate the bill.

The amendment was modified by Mr. Hyman, at Mr. Manly's instance to read as follows:

Provided, That this section shall not go into effect, until jurisdiction in matters relating to freedmen, shall be fully committed to the courts of this State. Thus modified the amendment was adopted by the following vote:

Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, moved to strike out sections 5 and 6, which was not agreed to.

Mr. McNair moved to amend by striking out section 9, in relation to negro testimony. The House refused to strike out.

Sundry engrossed bills from the Senate had their first reading in the House. One of these entitled "a bill concerning indictments in courts of oyer and terminer," passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules. [Renders indictments hertofore pending in courts of oyer and terminer triable at the next term of the Superior Court of the counties in which they were severally held.] The other bills will be noticed hereafter in detail.

The House adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

(In stating that Mr. Hoke on yesterday, opposed the amendment of Mr. McAden, to "the bill to authorize the Banks to close their business," the reporter should have said that Mr. Hoke's opposition to the amendment was based upon the belief, that so far from protecting small note holders, it would benefit only large creditors resident near the Banks; besides the notes bought at heavy discount by non-residents would at once be sent here for collection.)

(Mr. Hilliard voted yesterday in the affirmative on the passage of the "bill to authorize the Banks of the State to close their business," on its second reading. His name was inadvertently omitted.)

The disgusting blasphemy of Mr. Sumner in likening the typhical negro to Him who was God on the Cross, before the Senate of a Christain nation, was but imperfectly rebuked by Mr. Fessenden, thus:

Did the House, as charged by Mr. Sumner, place themselves in the situation of Pontius Pilate, with the negro for the Savior of the world, and the people of the United States for Barrabas? Why, sir, I expected him (Mr. Sumner,) to go further and in the next breath to say that what with the Constitution of the United States, the negro had been crucified between two thieves, and that now by this proposed amendment the stone had rolled away from the door of the sepulchre, and he had ascended to sit on the throne of the Almighty and judge the world.

We continue to receive proof in various forms that the loyal masses of the people are growing apprehensive of the fearful progress which is making here toward a subversion of our frame of government through general political demoralization, and the instrumentality of Congressional statutes which are to breed in the country the self-sustaing elements of a permanent military government. The provisional and abnormal regulations wrenched by the energy of State necessity, from the reluctant and stable civism in which alone we are free, to relapse as soon as the absolute necessity relaxes, are deliberately adopted as new foundations for the national fabric, and are to be inducted by stealth, trusting that once fairly started, the unhappily too easy expedient of inciting insubordination against them will provoke continual occasion for their augmentation, until before a betrayed and deluded people could realize what they had tolerated, the entire civil system, with the popular sovereignty from which it grows, will have been supplanted by an iron despotism. Even the remedy for such a state of things would be a scarcely less evil. An armed and overwhelming usurpation can only be overthrown by a still mightier one, and thus the people, even in their struggles for liberty, would be but riveting their chains.

It is dangerous to deride political warnings now. The terrific convulsions of the past four years were unaccountable to the foremost public men of the country, and to most of the people, and were witnessed by other nations with unspeakable astonishment. It is well known that the rebel chiefs, wicked as they knew themselves to be in thus precipitating a revolutionary crisis, had no conception of the dreadful consequences which insued, from which the worst of them would have shrunk with horror. When the first call was made by President Lincoln for 75,000 troops, the telegraphic announcement was received in the Montgomery Confederate Congress with uproarious laughter. What a lesson! has been learned by their counterpart, the organizers of a new revolution? May they not underrate the effect upon themselves and the country of measures now so zealously pursued by them, as the secession politicians pursued theirs, for power, which tend by every analogy of human history to a social and political cataclysim?

People of the Union! Your party favorites are bandying your most precious heritages as pawns in their gambling, or using them as mere weapons of partisan conflict. Your politicians as a class are hardened to violence, deaf to conscience, and ignorant of greatness. Power as a pursuit and power as a possession rules every bosom of these degenerate demagogues. Adjure them. President Johnson is upholding the restored Union. Believe not the protestations of friendship so generally made by leaders of all parties to him. He does not. They are for the sake of getting his countenance to aid them in betraying you. Strengthen his hands—not through the soulless formalism of party convention resolutions, in which none support and all commend him—in which your earnest and hearty words of cheer are transmuted into election spoil; but by holding meetings of the soldiers of the Union and their loyal fellow-citizens, apart from and high above all partisan divisions or prejudices, simply and solely to express their adhesion to the restoration policy of President Johnson. Demagogues are all opposed to such a course. Their political all depends on the empty names of your party divisions. Your attempt to combine independently of prejudices and names will be resisted by a combination of all demagogues, through the tacit, but unerring coalescence of common danger to the gaming table around which they stand.—Are you in their power, or they in yours? If there is any doubt, hasten to make sure that you yet have the liberty to think and speak for yourselves. Arise and throw aside your party leaders, and raise up new ones from your own numbers. If you want the old ones, you will surely get them soon enough.—National Intelligencer.

The Cincinnati Commercial quotes Mr. Seward as having "made the comprehensive observation to a gentleman, who asked him how far he intended to permit the Fenian foolery to go: 'The most valuble lesson taught us by England during the war was how to preserve a strict neautrality."

There are 30,000 bales of cotton still in the hands of planters in the interior of Alabama, waiting to come to market. The owners of it, anticipating a short crop this year, are holding for a rise in the market. So says the Montgomery Mail.

Northern Impressions.

The following extract of a letter written from this city to the Boston Post, contains a simple statement of facts, showing that the impressions of a liberal minded Northern man, are not unfavorable either to the loyalty or the courtesies of our people.

We reached Raleigh at 8 P. M., and out of the line of snow; this town, the capital of the State, contains about five thousand inhabitants. It is well laid out—well ornamented with trees—streets of good width, and some very neat and attractive private residences and churches. In the centre of the town stands the Capitol—at the opposite end of the main street is the Governor's residence. In front of the State House is a splendid bronze statue of Washington, and the grounds about it are quite ornamental, well shaded with trees, and an iron fence surrounds the enclosure. A liberal investment in white paint or even whitewash, on many of the buildings and fences, and well as good sanitary laws enforced, would add materially to the beauty of the place. Located here is the State Lunatic Asylum, on a rise of ground overlooking the town, and a few squares from the Capitol is the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum. The very cordial attention shown me by the Superintendent of both these institutions demand a notice, and I regret an abler pen is not favored with the duty. Mr. Willie J. Palmer is the Principal of the Asylum for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind. The building is, in architectural beauty and convenience, one of the best in the country, and neat and appropriately furnished. The present year there are 84 pupils, who all appear to be perfectly happy and making great progress in their studies. We were favored with an exhibition of the abilities of several, Miss Narcissa J. Dupree, a charming young lady of nineteen, who lost her sight from sickness when but four years old, is one of the most superb pianists, and with vocal powers that would do credit in any opera. She is now one of the teachers in the Institute. Jasper A. Jamison is a deaf mute, and his faculty for telling anecdotes in pantomine is truly remarkable; it is wonderful to note with what rapidity information can be communicated in the sign language; and while sympathy for the unfortunate very naturally finds utterance, yet it is a source of gratification to know they have a reliable means of intercourse. The penmanship of the mutes, which we examined, was excellent, while the reading by the blind was almost marvelous. From here we drove over with Mr. Palmer to the Insane Asylum, where we were met by Dr. Ed. C. Fisher, who escorted us through the entire building. This is one of the largest buildings of the kind in the United States—with all the modern improvements of heating and ventilation by steam and lighted with gas. The various wards are admirably arranged and kept perfectly neat in every respect. There were numerous sad features here to contemplate, and the history given us by the Doctor of some of the patients was heart-rending. In the female department was one lady who lost two little children during the war, and not hearing from her husband for some time, her mind was shattered. She played on the piano for us with great precision. She was quite a belle at one time, and dresses now with great taste. My limited space will not permit me to go further in detail. On the grounds and in the vicinity, General Sherman's army of 120,000 encamped, and from appearances, I fancy they made liberal use of fences, etc., for firewood; otherwise they are spoken of in most favorable terms.

Our visit here has been very pleasant, and I would like to have some of our extreme radical men, who didn't happen to have pluck enough to come down here during the war, make a visit over our route.

THE STEAMER Z. B. VANCE, Capt. Harris, lying at Cook's wharf in Portsmouth, was built in Wilmington, Del., by Pusey, Jones & Co., and was intended for the Cape Fear Navigation. The Vance is built entirely of iron, 136 feet long, 20 feet beam, 4 feet 6 inches hold, measures 105 tons, draws only 2 feet water and will carry 680 bales cotton in 3 feet 6 inch water. The Vance left Wilmington, Delaware, on Thursday last and came in the capes of Virginia on Saturday, and will go hence via the Albemarle and Chespeake Canal, thereby avoiding the dangerous coast of North Carolina. The number of steamers going South through this canal has greatly increased; and we learn many sea schooners of large capacity go through in ballast to avoid the dangerous cape of Hatteras.

Capt. J. Julius Guthrie, late of the C. S. N., will take command of the Vance.

Other steamers are now constructing at Wilmington, Delaware, and will follow the Vance as soon as completed.—Norfolk Virginian.

GOING TO MEXICO.—We regret to learn that several of the most substantial citizens of Caroline and King George are seriously contemplating a removal to the dominions of Maximilian.—Fredericksburg Herald.

Kenneth Haynes, Esq., Clerk of Columbus County Court, writes [April 2, 1863.] "During the latter part of the year 1862 I was severely afflicted with diseased liver, and many nights while in bed the pain would become so excruciating that I was compelled to get out of the bed and sit up until the pain would subside. I procured a few boxes of the Southern Hepatic Pills, and the first dose gave me great relief. I continued to use the Pills for two weeks, and have not suffered from liver disease since. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

Why the Robin's Breast was Red.

The following exquisite little gem, originally appearing in The Pacificator, a Catholic journal, is from the pen of Jos. R. Randall, Esq.:

The Saviour, bowed beneath his cross,
Climb up the dreary hill,
And from the agonizing wreath
Ran many a crimson rill;
The Brawny Roman thrust him on
With unrelenting hand—
'Till, staggering slowly 'mid the crowd,
He fell upon the sand.

A little bird that warbled near,
That immemorial day,
Flitted round and strove to wrench
One single thorn away;
The cruel spike impaled his breast,
And thus 'tis sweetly said,
The robin has his silver vest
Incrnadined with red.

Ah, Jesu! Jesu! Son of man!
My dolor and my sighs
Reveal the lesson taught by this
Winged Ishmael of the skies.
I, in the palace of delight,
Oroaverse of despair,
Have lacked no thorns from thy dear brow
But planted thousands there!

A CONSIDERATE JUDGE.—A very learned and compassioned Judge in Texas, on passing sentence on John Jones, who had been convicted of murder, concluded his remarks as follows: "The fact is, Jones, that the Court did not intend to order you to be executed before next spring, but the weather is very cold; our jail, unfortunately, is in a very bad condition; much of the glass in the windows is broken; the chimneys are in such a dilapidated state that no fire can be made to render your apartments comfortable; besides, owing to the great number of prisoners, not more than one blanket can be allowed to each; to sleep sound and comfortable, therefore, is out of the question. In consideration of these circumstances, and wishing to lessen your sufferings as much as possible, the Court, in the exercise of its humane compassion, hereby orders you to be executed to-morrow morning, as soon after breakfast as may be convenient to the Sheriff and agreeable to you."

A Washington letter relates that Mr. Hooper, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Hooper, of Utah, are constantly receiving each other's letters. A day or two since, a dispatch was handed the former, addressed Mr. Hooper, House of Representatives. Opening it, he was observed to refold it hastily, and look about the House with a most perplexing air. Jolly Mr. Jenckes, of Rhode Island, occupied the next seat. Turning to him, Mr. Hooper asked, in a vexed tone, as he unconsciously again unfolded the dispatch, "What shall I do, Jenckes? Here I have been opening another man's dispatch." The Rhode Islander read, as he leaned over, the following, bearing date: "Salt Lake City—Mr. Hooper: One of your wives has just been delivered of a son." The amusement the story creates is said to be intense.

A hard-shell preacher wound up a flaming sermon with this magnificent effusion:

"My brethren and sistern, ef a man's full of religion, you can't hurt him. There was the three Arabian children; they put 'em in a fiery furnace heated seven times hotter than it could be bot, and it didn't swinge a har on their heads. And there was John the Evangeler; they put him—and where do you think, brethering and sistern, they put him? Why, they put him into a calandrolic of bilin' ile, and biled him all night and didn't faze his shell! And there was Daniel; they put him into a lion's den—and what, my fellow-travelers and respected auditories, do you think he was put into a lion's den for? Why, for praying three times a day.—Don't be alarmed, brethering and sistern; I don't think any of you will ever get into a lion's den."

"You'll find ground at the bottom, my dear," said a man to his wife when she fell in the river.

If you crack rough jokes at other people's expense, you may get your head cracked at your own.

A colporteur of great experience says that railroad tracks are the most suggestive of death.—Herald.

HE'D LIKE TO DO IT.—"A man who'll maliciously set fire to a barn," said Mr. Slow, "and burn up twenty cows, ought to be kicked to death by a Jackass, and I'd like to do it."

NO SAXPENCE THERE.—"An Irishman asked a Long Island woman the price of a pair of fowls, and was told:

"A dollar."

"And a dollar is it, my darlint; why, in my country you might buy them for saxpence apeace."

"And why didn't you stay in that blessed country?"

"Och, faith, and there was no saxpence there to be sure!"

"How long did Adam remain in Paradise before he sinned?" said an amiable spouse to her husband. "Till he got a wife," was the calm reply.

Why is a husband like a Mississippi steamboat? Because he never knows when he may get a blowing up.

BETSY MADE THE BODY.—Lord Shaftsbury on one occasion was examining a girl's school, and just as he was about to leave he addressed a girl somewhat older than the rest, and among other vile things inquired, "Who made your vile body?" "Please, my lord," responded the unsophisticated girl, "Betsy Jones made my body, but I made the skirt myself."

GREAT HAUL OF FISH.—Willoughby's Bay, opposite Old Point, is noted as a retreat for the great rock fish that visit our waters during the month of February. Some years ago, in the month of February, some 1200 rock fish were taken in this Bay at one haul, averaging over 65 lbs each in weight.

Within a few days a school of these fish have been in the waters of Hampton Roads. Last evening they made their way into Willoughby's Bay and the fishermen on the farm of Wm. E. Taylor, Esq., soon launched their boats and got their seine aboard and made after them. About 10 o'clock last night they succeeded in landing their seine, and counted out of it eighty-six rock fish nearly all of the same size and weighing over seventy pounds each.

Owing to the fact that the wind was blowing fresh at the time, they failed to take but a small portion of the school. Messrs. Howard and Co. have purchased the fish, and they leave for New York to-night in ice.—Day Book.

Wendell Phillips, the great Abolition agitator, disunionist and secessionist, in a speech at the anniversary meeting of the Boston Anti-Slavery Society, on Friday, Jan. 26, made use of the following language:

"Practically, the negro is now in a worse condition than in 1860."

North Carolina Map for 1866.

THE Subscriber has, after ten years of toil and experience, prepared this new and beautiful map, from new engravings, with all the new Counties, Rail Roads, Post Offices, with hundreds of additions and corrections, State border views, likeness of President Johnson, Andrew Jackson, J. K. Polk, Govs. Swain, Graham, Vance, &c., altogether presenting a superb Map, worthy of the State and a place in every household, vastly superior to any thing in this line in finish and beauty.

This Map is entirely from new engravings, and is a great improvement on Cooke's & Pearce's old Map.

Beware of Northern humbugs and impositions.

This Map is now ready for printing.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,340,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,631,320 57, total disbursements $527,895 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,294 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "I had only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of

Whitford, Dill & Co.,

for the transaction of a Shipping and General

Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi-Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.
